ASK ALEX

As co-presenter of Moviewatch, the gorgeous Alex McLeod's got her finger on the throbbing pulse of Hollywood. Here, exclusively to B, she gives a sneak preview of who and what will be hot in 1998...

"Watch out for Ashley Judd, an actress who's about to become huge," reveals Alex. "She played Val Kilmer's wife in Heat and she's everywhere you look in the US at the moment - and with the most eligible men [read Robert de Niro and Matthew McConaughey]." See her in Kiss the Girls with Morgan Freeman in March. "Also, keep your eye on Jude Law. He's been inundated with offers after his scene-stealing turn in Gattaca, alongside Ethan Hawke. My big films for '98 are Godzilla, made by the team that brought you Independence Day, the new Bruce Willis film, Armageddon, and Eyes Wide Shut with Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman." Moviewatch, Tuesdays, 6pm, Channel 4.
