

ALEX McLEOD

LOADED MEN'S MAGAZINE MARCH ISSUE 1997

most wanted

Why is it that whenever you ask a really attractive girl what sort of bloke they go for, they always say someone really geeky and stupid to make someone as geeky and stupid as me think that I'm in with a chance?

Alex McLeod, Johnny Vaughan's beautiful co-presenter on Channel 4's Moviewatch is no different.

"Woody Allen," admits the 27-year-old Texan, with a giggle. "I know it sounds strange, but there's something about him that really attracts me."

But surely he looks like a three-week old cheese sandwich you forgot you had at the bottom of your bag which has since been crushed by a book?

"No! Woody is attractive, funny and intelligent. He's so sexy! Everything I want in a man. Honest!"

Besides a bizarre fixation for old, ugly film directors, Alex has appeared in a couple of episodes of Married With Children, drives a 1972 280SE Mercedes, listens to Oasis and fancies "funky" English guys. Nowadays she interviews the likes of Mel Gibson for Moviewatch but Alex is close to becoming a movie star herself.

"I've received loads of offers to bare all in what I call tits 'n' ass movies," she admits, "but I hate all that. I want quality and I'm prepared to wait for the right part."

Hmm... picky.

You can see Alex every Monday on Moviewatch at 6pm, Channel 4.
